“Tom Hauser's writing is transparent, authentic, and relevant. Are you anxious? Resentful? Facing uncertainty? These brief insightful recipes for real life are rooted in timeless truth. Take your time and sip them slowly, like a stiff cup of coffee.”
- Phil Callaway, author, speaker, Christian humorist and host of Laugh Again

"Finally - a book that speaks life and comfort to those of us familiar with the struggles that come in the deep, dark hours of the night. Tom reminds us that God is always there for us. Sometimes to comfort, sometimes to help us to fight the spirit of fear or regret, sometimes to remind us of his promises and sometimes to simply offers his presence. Keep this book on your nightstand. It is a powerful 2:47 a.m. resource!"
- Allen Arnold, Director of Content & Resources, Ransomed Heart Ministries

Excerpt - 2:47 a.m. and fully awake again. I had options – try and go back to sleep, lie still and stew until dawn, or take it to Father. I fired off questions, requests, demands and sometimes-angry ravings heavenward, but seldom, very seldom, waited or listened for His reply. I needed to quiet my heart and patiently listen, yet even during the most intimate conversations with God, listening was not my strong suit. I poured out my soul, but my mind then packed up and journeyed elsewhere, missing the reply. Father knew this and was always patient, recently urging me to get up and write down my prayer as well as His response. There was no discernible voice, no thunder or burning bush, just a simple flow of thoughts, encouragement, discernment, assurance and often-gentle reproach.
