Everything seems fine when Joshua moves his family out to the country. Thinking it was what his wife meant when she said she wanted to start a new life. Samantha doesn't like the fact that her husband has moved her family away from everyone they know. Things go from bad to worse when Joshua hears a voice in his head the first night at the house. The voice making him do things he doesn't want to do, his marriage is crumpling quickly when the dog goes missing and the only one not concerned about the dog is Joshua himself. Samantha catches on quickly that he's acting strange but only sees that he is changing from the man he use to be into a man she despises. No one knows the deep, harsh, thoughts that are going through Joshua's head. At least not until its too late to do something about it.
