WARNING: This is a psychological thriller with dark romance elements featuring a hot alpha male, an anti-TSTL heroine and some steamy good times. Due to explicit language, violence, adult situations, this novel is recommended to adults that can separate fiction from reality. Lies have nearly destroyed me. The absolute truth is what drives him. I've sworn allegiance to the only family I have left. He sides with my family only until he realizes he still has one of his own. I have few people left I can still trust. He refuses to allow anyone inside his own private hell except for me. The only way to live is to use the power we now possess. I am torn because I have committed the ultimate sin, and yet there is still a greater truth I have yet to find out. What do you do when the truth could destroy the one person you have placed your trust in only to find out they have deceived you all along?
