A Steaming Hot Erotic First Time Short Story

New Desires
Candace had just moved to the city to go to college. She had found a job at a local restaurant that was right around the corner from her small apartment. She was a girl who had kept to herself in High School and had not dated much. The boys seemed too immature for her interest and they did not know how to treat a lady. They usually were only after one thing and then you became the locker room gossip. She was not looking for anyone where she was currently, however she was not going to turn away a date or two with the right person as long as they could accept her as she was.

This is an adult, graphic erotic romance short story containing explicit content only suitable for adults.
