WARNING: The author's continuing exposure to society's pervasive commercialism has rendered her completely incapable of writing a description for this book that doesn't sound trite and formulaic. Because she realizes that trite and formulaic advertisements are becoming increasingly disfavored by consumers, she has opted to conscientiously abstain from any such marketing ploy. However, if she had not opted to conscientiously abstain from any such marketing ploy, the book's trite and formulaic description would have read as follows: Gas prices got you down?
