Fighting For Me (Volume 1) N. Lee
Coming off a bad break up, Addeline Vogel never felt she was missing anything in her life. She had lost interest in dating all together, even though her best friend has made multiple attempts in the last couple years to set her up. It isn't until she meets Maxen Becker, notorious playboy, that she realizes what's been missing in her life. When Max finds out that Adde's mother has never been in her life, he pushes Adde to find her. Can the past really affect her that much? Adde had often wondered why her mother left, or maybe more importantly why she would want to leave, but it rarely went past those questions. The truth is, there's a hole in Adde's heart, whether she recognizes it or not, but filling that hole may be more dangerous than she can handle. Adde has to fight for what she wants, but will she win? Reviews - I am always looking for a great new author to add to my list of "will always read" books. N. Lee is officially on that list. - I think this book is great for anyone who is interested in a REAL love story. I love that this book is unlike so many others and it allows you to really relate to the characters! - I cannot wait to read book 2, I am hooked!!
