Jimmy for the City Derek Rhodes
This book tells the story of a small boy with big ideas. Jimmy likes being helpful but more importantly, he wants to make a difference. He is smart, well mannered, generous and practical - all the key skills needed for becoming a council member. Jimmy is destined for greatness, but sadly no one can see that a 14-year-old boy would make the most remarkable politician. They laugh and they doubt, but Jimmy stays committed to proving them wrong. It’s not long before Jimmy has the entire city on the edge of their seats. This story teaches children that they can fulfill their dreams and achieve their potential simply through a little hard work and determination. It promotes positive character traits and emphasizes the importance of putting in the effort. In the first of the series, this fun and friendly book breaks down politics to a child friendly level and encourages little readers to try their hardest in everything they do.
