First things first, this is not a book for normal people. By that, I mean those who manage to easily clean up after themselves. If you have no problems making your bed and finding your pillow don't waste your time reading this. However if you are comfortable sleeping in a dumpster because it looks and feels like your bed. If your mother or girlfriend change into Haz-Mat suits before any of them decide to enter your bedroom. If you share your pillow with a 3-week old pepperoni or if taco chips from your last High School slumber party have taken up permanent residence on your mattress, please read on.
