The History of African Americans in Tucson: An Afrocentric Perspective, Volume Two: 1960-2000 (The History of African Americans in Tucson) Harry Lawson
From the cover: "This is the companion edition to volume one, The History of African Americans in Tucson: An Afrocentric Perspective (1996). This issue covers the period from 1960 through 2000. It focuses on the contributions and the strivings of African Americans in a city where the traditional historians pay little attention to them. It focuses on how integration came to be and how the population is dealing with the efforts of amalgamation."
