Fall Fever! Fall is a favorite time of the year because it's harvest time, and markets, farm stands, and stores are full of great food. You'll be pleased with this month's seasonal 30-minute meals. When you have a day off, look forward to taking your time and making a slow-simmered braised dinner. Cooking low and slow warms your heart, your home, and of course, your stomach. Fall also means tailgating season for football fans. Make sure to tear out the "Instant Expert" tailgating booklet of recipes, portable grills and tips for packing the cooler. If you'd rather gather around the table, you'll enjoy the harvest potluck story with Top Chef Missy Robbins. Her ideas are so easy and affordable, and they turn the potluck into fun, low-stress way to entertain. An decorating this time of year? Don't miss the "50 Things to Do with a Pumpkin" section. Round out Halloween frights and delights, take a tour of a spooky real-life haunted house, throw an awesome mustache-themed party, and cook with your leftover candy (How good do candy-corn nachos sound?). Then don't forget to bob for apples and watch those Halloween TV specials! Happy Fall!
