Love Line

This is the story of a young man who must confront the demons of his past in order to attain peace and forgiveness. After the tragic death of his brother, Billy blames himself and becomes immersed in alcohol. This leads him to a life on the streets where survival is harsh. A childhood sweetheart from his past returns to his life and helps him find his way home through understanding and love. This is a story of faith, a rekindled romance and how a soul can be redeemed through God's love and personal achievement.
