The Bluebonnet Girl

Michael Lind

The Bluebonnet Girl Michael Lind
A dramatic retelling of a Comanche legend of how Texas became known as the blue bonnet state.

"Come every spring
the bluebonnets cling to prairies the showers renew.
Come, gather near,
settle down, and you'll hear of how the first bluebonnets grew."

This beautiful Comanche legend of how a young girl sacrifices her most precious possession, even as the bravest men refuse, to save her land and people from a terrible drought, is retold here in dramatic verse and striking full-color paintings.
