Evidence of Things Unseen Joseph Herrin
What does a life of faith, led of the Spirit of Christ, look like in present day America? This book details the experience of one man and his family as he is challenged by God to go wherever God leads him, and to do whatever God ask him to do.

The book reveals triumphs and tragedies. It is replete with accounts of supernatural provision and guidance. The great value of this book is that it gives a present day testimony of what Christian discipleship looks like in current Western society.
