Policies, Procedures & Protocols: of the National Republic David E. Robinson
A compilation of the policies, procedures, and protocols of the foundation of the Republic for the united States of America that was recently reinhabited in 2010. Many people complain about what their supposed "representatives" in government do or don't do but they have lost the concepts of "civics" which is no longer taught in public schools. American have to learn, them selves, how to govern themselves, instead of surrending that right to others in the public domain. Why trust others to do what we should be doing right ourselves?
