Tea & Cake with the Saints: A Catholic Young Lady's Introduction to Hospitality and the Home Arts
Alice M Cantrell

Second edition: Now with full color photos, as well as watercolor illustrations, throughout!

Hospitality does not have to be elaborate or difficult. It can begin right at home with one's siblings and parents! It can be as simple as a picnic with a friend to celebrate their feast day or surprising your brother or sister with breakfast in bed. Many of the ideas in Tea & Cake with the Saints use saint's feast days as the occasion for practicing hospitality in the form of simple tea parties, but almost all of the ideas given can be used for any occasion a girl can dream up. Young ladies will also be encouraged to start their very own homemaking notebook and fill it with some of the ideas and recipes found among the varied chapters on everything from basic cleaning and organizing, to simple gardening. Tea & Cake is not meant to be a home economics text, but a light, fun and inspiring introduction to hospitality and the home arts. Tea & Cake was written with girls ages 10 and up in mind.
