Bill's Excellent Adventure, One fan's riotous trip to see a game in the final season of Old Yankee Stadium Bill Kasal
A West Coast Yankee fan has never been to Yankee Stadium and 2008 is the final season. Join fan, Bill Kasal, as he makes a riotous cross-country trip to see his beloved Yankees play a game (or two) in the final season in Baseball's Cathedral.

In this short story, the author makes an on-line purchase of a ticket to two games and a Stadium Tour, and then decides it would be a good idea to check flights and lodging possibilities. Carrying no luggage and a pocketful of underwear, he plans to go directly from the airport to the stadium, and then worry about his first-ever New York Subway ride to a hotel of whose location he is unsure.

A trip, which is supposed to be all about baseball, ends up including Greek mythology, an interview in the Hartford Courante, Pokemon and the most memorable car ride of his life.

A must read for any Yankees fan, New Yorker or any traveler! And ten dollars worth of laughs for less than a dollar!
