A Vacation to Remember K L Snider
Fifteen years earlier, Francesca and JD spent three transcendent days together in Cancun, Mexico. The connection they experienced has been noticeably absent all these years. Once again their worlds collide, but this time Francesca has a surprise for JD. Francesca has a full life in Detroit. She is fiercely independent and has closed her heart long ago. JD is a well-respected architect in Chicago, and has never found a woman to measure up to Francesca. They live almost 4oo miles away from each other, but must find a way to cohesively be together. If they can confront each challenge together, they may have a chance at true happiness.
