We respond to our name throughout our lives. People associate us with our first name; it forms part of our identity. They help to distinguish us from one to another. Other people gain immediate and sometimes totally subconscious views of people, just from hearing a name they can therefore give us a distinct advantage in life, or conversely, a disadvantage!

The choice of an Indian name is, therefore, incredibly important. And those of us who choose a baby's name are taking on a responsible task!
