Nude & Tattooed (Youthful Indiscretions Book 2) V. Moore
This is the second short story in a series (Youthful Indiscretions) following the enticingly daring sexual adventures of alternative twenty-somethings in a bustling metropolis.

Despite his busy, studious life, Nick hasn't been able to get Olivia out of his mind since their catastrophic break-up... over two years ago. He's deleted all their old 'home movies' from his hard drive, but he can't resist getting together with her when the chance presents itself, no matter how much baggage they have. Will one last burst of sweet satisfaction take his mind off their wild past?

Nick reminisces about their rocky relationship, which, though it ended years ago, still provides him with vivid memories to fantasize over, and debates the potential merits of meeting up with Olivia one more time. When she shows up, his defenses crumble.

From the story:

"The fact that we had sex for the first time on her eighteenth birthday had nothing to do with her reaching the legal age. I was beyond scared, so nervous that I could barely perform, and I wanted to continue delaying it. She wouldn't have it, though. All the chaste nights we'd spent together had built a critical mass of desire in her, accustomed as she had been to frequent casual sex, and she made it clear that she didn't give a fuck if I was scared.

Her taking charge frightened me, but, on another much stronger level, it drew me in. I learned what it was to be held down by my wrists; to hear “* me! * me harder!” screamed straight into my ear; to know the exquisite comfort of being roughly handled by someone who knew exactly what she was doing."
