Oftentimes, life leads a person on a quest of contemplative knowledge. Each person experiences this at some point or another during a lifetime seeking only the deepest of answers to the deepest of questions. This contemplation is based on the eternal question of faith versus destiny.

Is mankind led by a road which twists and turns forcing one to one's predetermined destiny? Or is mankind the captain of its own fate, steering through the lakes and the streams searching through the unknown precepts of life making a path toward the ocean of self-acceptance and inner peace. What is 'beginner's luck'? What are the explanations of some of the eternal burning questions presented to the universe by mankind? What is the meaning of life? Why are we here?

As the reader peruses through the pages of 'The Alchemist' written by Paulo Coelho, theories of these ancient questions are presented in a manner resembling a parable and comparative in shaping one's way of thinking to Aesop's fables.
