Jenna Hayden has always felt at odds with the world around her. From a hippie mother and absent father to twelve years of grade school wondering why her classmates found things like calculus and college-level English challenging. As an adult, she fills her existence with things like Jeopardy along with all the responsibilities owning a café entails.

Despite doing everything she can to entertain herself, despite a lifetime of appearing as much like her peers as possible, she is bored. The empty space in her head is filled with cumbersome worries and meaningless observations. That is, until a tall dark man with a strange obsession with kale and gripping, violet eyes walks through her front door.

There is something alluring to him… a quality beyond this world.
