HIDDEN (To Love A Killer Book 1) Lexie Ray
They say you can’t outrun your past, but I’ve done just that.

At twenty-five and living on the mean streets of Brooklyn, I’ve gotten wise on how to score anything from pills to cash to men.
It’s called surviving, and I've learned how to make the rules up as I go.

But, deep down, I know it’s only been a means to forget my disturbing past.
I would do anything to forget…

But when I return home one night and discover that song playing on the stereo, the song they used to play to torment me,
I know they've finally found me, they've come for me, they’re already here.
If they capture me this time, there will be no chance of escape. I am not about to let that happen.

My new neighbor from down the hall, Ash has been watching me and I know he likes what he sees. He’s caught my attention as well.
But there’s something about his smoldering good looks and brooding gaze I don’t trust. Then again, I don’t trust anyone.
Will he complicate my plan to protect myself?

NOTE:
This is a three part story and, due to the nature of its content, is not suitable for very young readers.
