Liar Liar: Is Your Life Based on the Lies You Believe? Sundi Jo Graham
What do you believe about yourself?

Do the words ugly, fat, stupid, and unlovable sound familiar to you?

We let the world tell us who we are. We let family and friends speak lies over us that we start to believe. We let expectations of ourselves and others fill our minds so much that we believe the end will result in failure regardless of what we do.

"Liar Liar" is a manifesto about not only believing the truth about who you truly are, but also speaking that truth into reality. It’s a call to take the next step in your faith and take action with your words.

It will challenge you, change your heart, and lead you in the right direction to believe the truth about your true identity.

Are you ready to get started? To stop believing the lies about who you are? Ready to take an act of faith and courage?

Start your journey today with Liar Liar. It’s time to believe truth, speak truth, and live truth. Remember: You are what you think.
