The Switch Serene Sarah
Robert is out shopping and a guy, Max, he steps in front of Robet at the cash register. Robert complains to the guy, one thing leads to another, and Max ends up knocking Robert down in the store. Robert goes out to his car where Max ambushes Robert, hits him and knocks him out. Robert wakes up lying on a table where Max's wife, Val, who is a necromancer has turned Robert into the female body of Allison.

Robert has to go out into the real world in the body of Allison, under a curse, give a guy a blow job, then Robert will change back into himself, The curse though, it comes on anywhere from 10 minutes to 10 days, so Robert never knows when he will change. Robert really doesn't know the ways of women, so he has trouble trying to find a guy to give a blow job to, and he needs to hurry, for if he doesn't complete the job within 24 hours, then hormones will take over, which will not let Robert change back and will also make him into a nymphomaniac.

Robert manages to get the action performed within the 24 hours of each change, but with some surprising results.
