What Happened To The Southern Way?: A Look At The Hospitality And Heritage Of The South Joey Nolan
What Happened To the Southern Way? is a collection of thoughts and ramblings of one good ole' country boy who longs for the olden days when Southern hospitality and honoring one's heritage was a way of life. The author looks at the changes that have occurred in modern society and the repercussions of an end to those by-gone days. Reading this book will take one back to a time when respecting others, as well as oneself, was the norm not the exception. What Happened to the Southern Way? is one man's look at how "old times there" have been forgotten. If we are to save ourselves from society's present course into the future, we must look back at the Southern ways of Dixieland.
