Sing Along, Senior Citizens R. E. Grant
Compiled and edited by Roy E. Grant, Georgia Retardation Center, Athens, Georgia. Music with which the senior citizen can associate can often be used to reach the most withdrawn. Studies have shown that music produces a happy feeling even in nursing homes and hospitals, thus providing a better atmosphere and warmer feelings toward the staff and each other. This book is set in large type to accommodate reading without undue strain, and includes songs used in different parts of the country that are familiar with this age group. It is intended for use in social gatherings for the sake of having a good time and for therapeutic purposes. The songs have been carefully edited, made simple, and transposed to keys suitable for this age group, for both men and women.

Dorothy Stanek:

As a college student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or even make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's heart and soul or real their leisure activity. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Sing Along, Senior Citizens can make you sense more interested to read.
