The Fighting Hawks at D-Day (Volume 1) Eileen F Cosgrove
This is not good, thought Christopher as he looked around him. Smoke lingered in the air from the mortars and gunfire being fired at the landing fleet. Suddenly, they were drenched by the cold water of the English Channel, as a German shell exploded next to their landing craft destined for Omaha Beach, Normandy, France. It was June 6,1944. Wags, Will and Jack had parachuted into Normandy earlier this morning. Had they survived what was sure to be a death-defying jump? He had been down this path before, and the only outcome that was certain was that people died: good, decent people. Their mission? To free Europe from Hitler's and Nazi Germany’s evil occupation. The future of the free world rests on their success. Failure is not an option! Set in Military History class at boot camp, Marine recruit Christopher B. Cosgrove III discovers a portal back in time in the blowing American flag. He arrives in England weeks before the D-Day invasion with his friends, Kevin, Brian, Wags, Will and Jack. As members of the 116th Infantry, Christopher, Kevin and Brian are preparing to land on Omaha Beach. Wags, Will and Jack, members of the 101st Airborne, are preparing to jump behind enemy lines as the invasion begins. Historically accurate, Christopher teaches his young readers the facts about the largest invasion in the history of the world by living through it with them. "The Fighting Hawks at D-Day" is a compelling and exciting way to learn our history, ensuring a new appreciation for the freedoms we hold dear. This middle reader historical fiction book is the perfect way to educate your children about our history.
