Truth in Journalism Mary W Maxwell, Dee McLachlan
The truth about anything is never in dispute. We need only consider who is purporting to tell it. Dee McLachlan and Mary W Maxwell dissect the stories of the day and reveal that mainstream journalism has truly lost its way. Most people believe in the default position -- what the governments are putting forward. But frequently the facts contradict the official reportage. This user-friendly book reminds the reader of well-established rules for serving the public with honest facts and critical analysis. Plenty of humor here, too. And the famous Insider speech by Dr Day is printed in this book.
