High Caliber Talent Michael Grollman
High Caliber Talent is the story of two friends, CIA intelligence analyst Jack McGill, and Anton Rykov, the KGBs top spy in the United States. Downsized out of their jobs at the end of the Cold War, Jack and Anton open McGill Associates, a consulting and executive recruiting company, which serves as a front for the real business theyre in: finding freelance espionage work for other unemployed intelligence operatives. When business begins to boom, not everyone is happy for McGill Associates. Particularly unhappy is Steve Saugerties, a former colleague of Jacks and now a high-ranking official at CIA who, operating without any official sanction, has some sinister plans of his own for McGill Associates private espionage operations. And, if Jack and Anton arent amenable to his proposal of a business partnership, then Steves future plans for McGill Associates dont necessarily include Jack and Anton.
