My Brother My Enemy (Without Mother Without Father) (Volume 3) C.K. Edwards
My Brother My Enemy concludes the Without Mother Without Father trilogy. The war on the Bliek Plains is over, and despite Velan's use of the magic forbidden him, both the armies of Sonoria and Errgonel are decimated. Neither country will ever be the same. The prince has failed and no image haunts him more than that of his father, dead at his feet. A terrible vengeance will be required, and Velan will do anything to be present when the dark god returns so that he can kill the god himself. Dorian's struggles continue as he tries to understand who he is without knowing his past. He is accompanied by unique and gifted companions, individuals whom the Land has chosen to aid his cause, but Dorian struggles against trusting a power that seems only to require and never to give. Dorian is the key to defeating the dark god, but will he make the sacrifices necessary? Shadow and Shade - Book 1 of the WMWF trilogy Son of Memory - Book 2 of the WMWF trilogy
