Race: The Elephant in the Room Will Kill You! Leo Bashir Moor
Race: The Elephant in the Room Will Kill You is a detailed decoding of racism, white supremacy in America. The book was created after post racial myths were introduced after the election of President Barack Obama. The book takes aim at talking heads like Don Lemon, Sean Hannity, and Dinesh D'souza. Race, is the most detailed break down and understanding of white supremacy ever written. The author is a post 9/11 veteran that took on racism in the United States Navy. Leo Moor is a graduate of Columbia, Missouri and addresses the issue that took place in Ferguson, Missouri. Leo Moor is the only person in America that figured out how to rebuild the African American economic base step by step. Take the journey and learn exactly why racism exist and what the final outcome will be because of it. No subject is off limits including Christianity, Islam, and segregation within the Masonic order. Hidden history will be uncovered and one of the fathers of the "white race" will be revealed. Leo Moor is the most relentless author to ever touch on race, not only the white supremacy side but the African American self hate.
