Julie Clayton is single and she's done the best she could to raise her young one, sacrificing everything to give him the best she could. That's meant going it alone, without a man in her life, for oh-so-many years.

Then she attends a parent-teacher conference, where she meets him – a young chemistry teacher who talks about these glorious ideals of lifelong learning and being a student for life, while she's spent her time struggling just to get from one pay day to the next. When she confesses to the teacher, a man who is more than ten years her junior, some of her struggles and fears, he suggests perhaps she hasn't had enough discipline in her own life…and he's just the man to impose that on her.

Soon enough he takes her to his secret little hideaway, where she finds herself at his mercy, submitting to his very strict brand of discipline and learning when he pulls out a special paddle like the ones she remembers from her own school days. Julie learns being on the receiving end of some merciless spankings are not only cathartic, but incredibly hot – especially when she finds the spankings are just a warm up to the most scintillating, seductively romantic series of encounters she's ever known.
